THE PERRIER FAMILY STORY

Eureka Kansas

Nestled in the southern Flint Hills of Kansas, Dalebanks Angus Ranch cattle roam some of the last vestiges of native tall grass prairie in North America. On land acquired by his great-grandfather, Matt Perrier and his wife, Amy, care for several hundred head of Angus cattle and maintain a small farming operation. Alongside their children, Ava, Lyle, Hannah and Henry, Dalebanks Angus Ranch strives to produce the very best beef available with the end user in mind.
